ADJUDICATION

World Dance Movement judges are a combination of; Internationally acclaimed teachers, company directors, choreographers and currently performing dance professionals. World Dance Movement judges are well trained in multiple genres of dance and are sensitive to the various skill levels represented by the dancers' differing ages.

Performances will be judged based on the following criteria and point system.

Costume – Appropriateness, in line with the choice of music	5 points
Choreography – Originality, in line with the choice of music	10 points
Showmanship – performance quality and stage presence	20 points
Difficulty – Quality in the execution of tricky drops.	20 points
Technique – fundamental knowledge/figures correct execution	25 points
Flexibility – Shoulders, back and legs flexibility	20 points

The average score from all judges will remain the performer's final score. The Technique score in all final top four placements will break any and all ties.
